What is Silver Bars NYLT?

Silver Bars NYLT is a week long outdoor experience for current and future troop leaders, utilizing the patrol method. It presents the eleven leadership skills in multiple formats providing the opportunity for participants to live and practice these leadership skills. Virtually all of the training is conducted by the youth staff. The course follows the National BSA National Youth Leadership Training curriculum.

For forms and current information, visit our web site at <http://www.silverbars.org>

Who can attend?

Silver Bars is for you if you're a boy who can answer YES to ALL of the following:

- ✳ You'll be 13 years old by June 19, 2005;
- ✳ You will not be 18 years old before June 24, 2005;
- ✳ You'll be at least a first class Scout by June 19, 2005;
- ✳ You now hold or intend to hold a troop leadership position;
- ✳ You are mature enough and responsible enough to spend an entire week camping with boys you've never met, with minimal adult supervision, and always live the scout oath & law;
- ✳ You agree to practice the skills you learn at NYLT when you return to your home troop; AND,
- ✳ Your parents and Scoutmaster agree and recommend you.

Why should I attend [for Scouts]?

- ✳ You'll have fun
- ✳ The leadership skills we teach will help you throughout your life, within scouting, in school and later in life.
- ✳ Your regular troop job will become more fun
- ✳ You'll make new friends
- ✳ You'll get to practice, teach or show off your Leadership skills and learn new skills
- ✳ You'll have fun

Why should I send Scouts [for Scoutmasters]?

- ✳ We provide intensive leadership training in a controlled environment that would be difficult for you to reproduce;
- ✳ Trained leaders make your job easier;
- ✳ Trained leaders make scouting more fun for the rest of your troop members; AND,
- ✳ You'll be invited to our closing feast.

How much does it cost?
